25X1 3. [ ] Jim Kendall called to say that Senator Stennis had talked with him about the question of getting certain information from the Agency involving special clearances. Kendall stated Stennis seemed concerned that there was a problem and in his own mind related it to the difficulty of getting information from DOD on the question of missile dependability. Kendall assured him that this was not a related problem. Since Stennis and the Director had agreed that Kendall and Warner should get together to try to work out something on possibly a temporary or informal basis, Kendall suggested that I see him in the next day or so which I will do. ✓

25X1 4. [ ] Senator Jacob Javits called saying he understood we had a letter pertaining to the book, THE BAY OF PIGS. Senator Javits indicated that Senator Saltonstall had mentioned to him a letter which I had shown him. Javits said he would like to see this. I indicated I would be back in touch. Subsequently, this was discussed with the Director who reread the memorandum and said he saw no objection.
